

Rowney Green Peace Memorial Hall

Charity Values

Our Charity values are the principles that underpin everything that the RGPMH Charity does. They summarise what we stand for, what is important to us and inform our behaviours and our expectations of our volunteers, fundraisers and other stakeholders, our committees and our trustees.

Respect

We treat everyone equally and with compassion

We listen to others with empathy, and explore others' ideas positively and constructively

We are courteous and polite to our fellow volunteers

Pride

We take pride in all we do and aspire to do.

We volunteer without expecting something in return.

We always act in the best interests of the Rowney Green Peace Memorial Hall Charity

Transparency

We display honesty and openness in our behaviours and charitable activities

We do what we say we will do and communicate if we are not able to

Support and Collaboration

We support one another to achieve the Charity's objectives, both short and long term

We provide a safe, secure environment for sharing and exploration of ideas

Inclusion

We welcome everyone just as they are.

Everyone has something to offer. Everyone has a say and a right to be listened to. We ensure it is easy to get involved.

Volunteers – anyone who works in a voluntary capacity for the RGMPH Charity e.g. trustees, committee members, maintenance team, booking team, park group volunteers or helpers for various events.
